

KILLS HIS WIFE AND SELF IN CAR OF BISHOP BURCH

Shooting of Two in Harlem Is Laid to Jealousy After Separation.

Patrolman Louis Goodyear of the West 123d Street Police Station heard shots fired at 130th Street and Seventh Avenue last midnight. Running to the corner he found a man and a woman, negroes, crumpled up in the back of a Cadillac limousine bearing the license plate E-77. Each had been shot through the breast and both were dead. On the sidewalk nearby was an automatic pistol from which the shots had been fired.

The victims were identified as Raymond Amos, thirty-two, No. 2441 Seventh Avenue, and his wife, Lucia Amos, twenty, No. 123 West 131st Street. The police at first thought both had been murdered, but early to-day announced that the couple had been separated several months, and it was murder and suicide.

Charles Brown, colored, chauffeur for the widow of Bishop Burch, took Lucia Amos and two other negro girls riding last night, according to the police. Amos saw them, jumped to the running board, fired one shot into his wife's breast and two into his own. The chauffeur and the other two girls became frightened and ran. Several hours later the police learned the automobile was that used by the late Bishop Burch, jealousy is said to have been the motive.

E. W. SEYMOUR DIES AT DESK.

Was a Resident of Brooklyn and Head of Fuel Products Co.
Edward W. Seymour, seventy years old, of No. 1270 Pacific Street, Brooklyn, President of the Hyco Fuel Product Corporation, died at 11 o'clock this morning in his office, No. 276 Fifth Avenue, New York. Clerks say he was seated at his desk when he suddenly toppled forward.

Patrolman Petrow of the West 30th Street Station called Dr. Johnson of the New York Hospital. Death was due to heart failure.

STOLE TO START NEW YEAR RIGHT

Police Declare Suspects in $5,000
Clothing Robbery Gave This Explanation When Arrested.

"We wanted to get money so we could start the New Year right," was the explanation Frank Ambrosina gave the police when he and Carmine Babino of No. 477 West Broadway, were caught with $5,000 worth of clothing, which it was charged, had been stolen from the fourth floor loft of Benjamin Garbushky at No. 111 Bleecker Street.

Ambrosina, who lives at No. 172 West Houston Street, and Babino drove a covered wagon through West 33d Street at 2 o'clock this morning and Detectives O'Connell and Mahoney of the Mercer Street Station followed. The wagon stopped in front of a tenement at No. 205 Wooster Street. The two men passed through the house to the rear yard and came out with bags. Then they were arrested and the bags found to contain clothing. In the yard, the police say, was found the remainder of goods, which had been thrown from the window of Garbushky's place, which overlooked the Wooster Street back yard.

The police declare the men admitted the robbery. They were arraigned to-day in Jefferson Market Court.

POLICE IN GUN FIGHT.

Five policemen and six men they were seeking to arrest in Henry Street, Orange, early to-day, engaged in a fight in which no one was injured, but which resulted in the capture of six men. Anthony Norell, of Henry Street, telephoned the police that some men were acting strangely near his place. There had been a report, according to the police, that Norell had liquor stored in his cellar.

Five patrolmen were sent at once and they arrested Harry White of No. 423 Hunterdon Street, Newark, and the driver of an auto truck, Benjamin Plager, of No. 215 Prince Street, Newark. Later an automobile stopped at the house and when six men got out a revolver battle began. Only three of the men were caught. They were Frank Seifert, No. 423 Hunterdon Street, and Harry Noel, No. 471 Bergen Street, all of Newark. William Bailey was taken into custody later.
